INTRODUCTION AND THANK-YOU'S:

Good Afternoon,
What a whirlwind week I have had coming into a new school and community. First impression: Amazing. I would like to thank all of the parents, staff and especially the students who have introduced themselves to me over this week. I have told everyone that my goal is to learn names and the kids are holding me to that. I am slowly getting there. Parents please drop by and introduce yourself if I have not met you yet. My door is always open so drop by or feel free to email me.

Thank-you for the warm welcome.
