- Lakeview Elementary - Weekly News

Good afternoon Lakeview families.

What a great week at Lakeview. It was great to see all the parents at Intake meetings this week and I know the staff love connecting with families, through in person, zoom or a phone conversation. To me it was just so encouraging seeing adults (besides our lovely staff) actually in the building.

Friday September $\mathbf{2 4}^{\text {th }}$ - Professional

 Development Day - Students do not attend. Our staff will be taking part in our first Professional Development day this Friday where we will be diving deeper into our understanding of the Growth Mindset. We will also be virtually attending Dr.Dustin Louie's presentation on Engaging with Decolonizing and Indigenizing Education in the Age of Reconciliation.

Meet the Seniors.

Our grade 7 students did an excellent job preparing, displaying and presenting displays about themselves as our school leaders. It is a long day for them but the energy from the beginning to the end was great and it was heart-warming to see the interaction between the classes and ages.
