Lakeview Elementary Weekly News

Dear Lakeview Community,

We're excited to celebrate our upcoming Literacy Week with our school community next week. Today, we kicked off the week with an assembly and "Name that Character" contest; some of the teachers were not recognizable!

This year's theme, "Into the Wild with Words." We are inviting our students to explore how reading and writing help us imagine new worlds, express ourselves, and connect as a community. Literacy is a lifelong skill that opens doors, and this week we're shining a spotlight on the joy and power of writing, which connects to our school goal.

Throughout the week, students will explore the power of literacy through creative activities, special guests, and school-wide events that spark imagination and connection.

Highlights include an author visit, story workshops in the library, setting-inspired writing activities, a fun Word Whiz challenge, guest readers, an outdoor story walk, and a school-wide scavenger hunt. We'll finish the week with our Readathon and Pajama Day, where families are invited to join us in celebrating our shared love of reading. I've included a full outline of these events further along in the newsletter.

We look forward to a week of curiosity, creativity, and going "wild" with words together!

Amelia Poitras, Principal Lakeview Elementary

ONLINE INDIGENOUS LESSON

This week Students gathered to learn from Sempúlyan Stewart Gonzales in our Online Indigenous Session. Sempúlyan Stewart Gonzales is a member of the Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw (Squamish Nation) and serves as a Councillor on the Squamish Nation Council. He has long been involved in community work, including sharing cultural knowledge and supporting language learning. This week, he shared hən'qəmin'əm' (Hun'qumi'num) and Skwxwú7mesh sníchim (Squamish language) with our students, emphasizing the importance of family, identity, and maintaining the languages of our ancestors.

He also spent time teaching about protocol, highlighting the importance of understanding and respecting the land we are on and the teachings of the Coast Salish Nations: xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and səllwətaʔ (Tseil-Waututh).
